NALC and SLCC strongly advise local councils to continue to meet remotely, without the need for face to face contact. Government rules still state that we should all work from home if we can. However, where a council does have an identified need to hold physical meetings, as they are unable to conduct council business any other way, they can consider doing this from 4th July. These meetings must be managed within the social distancing and 'safer workplaces' guidance produced by Government, which includes the requirement to conduct a risk assessment to determine if it is feasible and safe to hold a physical meeting.
  - (b) Clerks request for payment of additional hours relating to 19/20
